WILLIAM M NUCKOLLS

This is from a new member who has been unable to connect her line and we are asking for help from others. I have been assisting her and helping her research, but we seem to be at a dead end. Several attempts have been made to obtain a death certificate without success. There does not seem to be one. If you can help or have any suggestions, please contact Sandra Nuckolls Church

My grandfather William M. Nuckolls told a story where his dad set him on his lap and told him that somebody was after him. The next morning they found him dead in a ditch nearby. They thought he was a war deserter.

(Doesn't jive with your death date. Anyway, this makes him 102 at death, so it is likely wrong.)

Both are buried at Cranberry Primitive Baptist Church, road #1607, 2 1/2 mi south from junction of 113 & 221, Ashe County side.

A story was recorded that William's father was a deserter from a war. Two family members told me that they heard that when William was very small, his father put him on his knee and told him that some people were after him and the next morning the family found him dead in a nearby ditch. I spoke to a gentlemen doing research in the library last month and he told me that that they usually didn't kill you if you are a war deserter because alot of men had farms back home. It could be he was running from the law. Could that be recorded somewhere?

WM Nuckolls in Book 3 p. 553 Deeds, of where he purchased land from Jacob & Caudice Miller in the Obids Creek Township on 23, Jan 1899 and paid $107.00 plus 6% payable on that day. I couldn't read alot of the content because it was hard to read. It was witness by B.B. Bare & G.E. Richardson on 8, May 1899 by A.S. Eller, Clerk of Court & D.A. Osborne was Register Of Deeds copies from a small book. A couple of titles" Declaration of James Cox" & "Declaration of Benjamin Phipps, I found an article (pages) out of a book that mentioned Creed Nuckolls name. This article was sent to me in 1985 by someone who had researched the Shepherds Line.>>Some years after the first store house was built and goods being sold in it, there was another store house built on the opposite side of the creek nearer to the Fields house. The first merchant to sell goods in that house was a man by the name of Weaver. After him came

James Waugh and Creed Nuckolls. After them came Weldon Edward who rented the store, sold goods for several years, then moves to the east side of Pine Mountain. After Edwards, McLean and Hale sold goods up to the beginning of the Civil War. After the war was over two young Confederate solders, Charley Evans, who before the war lived at Baltimore, and Captain Blankenship, from Fredericksburg, Va. drifted here. Neither could go back at that time in account if the Federal army having possession of their homes. During the war Evans had lost his right arm and Capt. Blankenship his right leg. They drifted here and by some means got a small stock of goods and continued in the business a few years. Before them came W.J. Neikirk who sold goods and bought horses for the southern market. He married while here Miss Leutitia Ross. After a few years he moved up near Grassy Creek, N.C

Benjamin Phipps ,Sr. is Grandma Sarah Jane Shepherd Nuckolls' Great Great Grandfather b. ca. 1762 in Grayson Co. Va. Married Jane Hash 1838.

I talked to a 73 year old lady that is researching information on Cranberry Cemetery where my family is buried. She was also present when William died. She was around four or five. She told me William Nuckolls donated land for Bellview Church which is less than a mile from Cranberry. Cranberry split up and William changed his membership to Bellview. He was a committeemen and wanted to start their own cemetery. This lady Mrs. Reeves said her uncle was the first one buried their. Later they decided to share the one cemetery. She remembered a Nuckolls being buried without a grave marker in the 40's. She wants to see the data I have collected on William & Sarah's children. The reason she had an interest in the Nuckolls was that her mother had a trunk full of old love letters from my uncle Robert (the one I am searching for). The letters are lost but she had one where he wanted to marry her and she turned him down because maybe of family problems. Robert was in the Ohio 52th U.S. Army WW1. He was an officer. Where could I get information on him. She is getting me more information on other people to call. She called an 82 year old man about William and he said that he did die at home because someone by the name of Dan Hill and Elmer Taylor was walking down the road when William fell to the floor and Sarah Jane yelled at them to help get him up and that was when he died. She gave me an address of an old lady that lives in PA who has alot of information. Every one said so far that noboby heard William talk about his parents.

I met with Ms. Reeves today and she had alot of information on William Nuckolls. Every one called him Willie. She made a lot of phone calls for me. She wants me to help her figure out what Nuckolls was buried in the Cranberry Cemetery in the mid-40's without a grave marker. She remembers alot of nice flowers was placed on the grave and she saw them on a Sun morning. She thinks it might have been some of W.Va. Nuckolls. She thought someone said that it was one of William's children. All of them are accounted for but Robert. She wants to collect alot of information in a book form and sell them and use the money to purchase markers for the ones in the Cranberry Cemetery without any. She helped a man who was taking care if the graves and knew that at one time all the old field stones where cleared out of the cemetery and there are alot of lost graves. Also we were going through her 1850 Ashe Co. Census and found a Geo. Nickels 23 from Va. and Elizabeth 28 Children; David age 6, Eda age 3 and Polly 8/12 from Peak Creek Comm. pg. 16 author Danny L. Miller. I know it is a long short. I also found in my notes several years ago that I written down that William was born in the Peak Comm. in Ashe. I've asked Mrs. Reeves to help me locate anyone in that comm that might know something. Wm. & Sarah's house burned in 1899 or 1900 and he purchased land in Obid Comm which is close to Peak Creek Comm in Ashe Co in 1899 .I will go sometime and check out land records and wills. Still waiting on a reply from the funeral home and the very old distant cousin from PA. Mrs. Reeves showed me a love letter Robert Nuckolls wrote to her mother in 1909 from Camp -Perry, Ohio 2nd.U.S. Infantry (AHA Pruden Chapin Library) was printed on the stationery.I'm going back to see her Thurs and get a copy of the letter .--

My half-brother told to the family that he remembered that William Nuckolls showed up one day out of nowhere and married Sarah Jane Shepherd.

(This doesn't make sense. Could they have switched the b & d dates?)

The caretaker of Cranberry Cemetery wrote back to say that they could not find out anything concerning any of the Nuckolls buried their. There is something that I have been wondering about. The land where the cemetery is located was donated by Sera Jane. Bettie (William's Mother) is buried there. Sera Jane inherited alot of money from her first husband and probably bought the land after her first husband died Boyd Hash. Their only child Aurora found in cemetery records was born 1878?I'm not sure if the year is right, trying to locate gravesite. Bettie had to be buried on her land after she bought it or she purchased the land because she was buried there. The marked isn't in line with the other Nuckolls graves and it's not an old marker. William & Sera's first child was born 23, Dec. 1878 and died 21, May 1885 is buried in the same cemetery. The childs tombstone looks older than Bettie's marker. Also if she died then why wasn't her dates recorded on her marker unless nobody knew her exact birth and death date.

Notes for Gordie Nuckolls:

Gordie, the first born has the birth year, month and day as Aurora. I seen it when I was recording the dates. I thought I made a mistake. I'm going by the Ashe cemetery records at the library. I know Gordie's is right because I decorate the graves every year. I cannot locate the cemetery yet, the church is no longer in use where Aurora is buried. One of the dates must be wrong.

Notes for Robert L Nuckolls:

Robert (Lee) Nuckolls. He was our fathers older brother who disappeared long before their mother S. Jane died. In the family stories I recorded is that he left home and never returned. He lives in Texas and was an officer in the war. I found a letter where he wrote Aurora (Half-sister) and said he was homesick. I couldn't read the return address. Well back in Dec. I found on a message board where a John Nuckolls was searching his Nuckolls ancestors in N.C. (Furches Comm.) This is where WM & S.Jane raised their children. I didn't have his birthdate at the time, but found it in the census and it was the same year 1888 that his grandfather Robert had. He wrote that on Robert's death certificate his parents was listed a unknown. We also heard that he didn't have children. John said his father was adopted by Robert Nuckolls but has a daughter by another marriage. He was to contact me after contacting his family back in Jan. He never returned a reply and lost his e-mail and cannot locate him. They lived in Austin, TX and he moved to somewhere near Moorehead City, N.C. We don't have anything on Robert other than what Mrs. Reeves said that he was in the Ohio Army at Camp Perry in 1907 and that he lived in Texas
